Thank you for your interest in our escorted tour to Britain.

Welcome to those who will be joining us for the first time this year, and a warm “welcome back” to our friends who were with us on one of our previous tours. As always, we have taken the suggestions of our passengers and wherever possible have incorporated them into the tour. We received a lot of positive feedback from our previous tours ..

Mike Shacklock will be leading this tour again in 2010. For those of you who know Mike, you will appreciate that his knowledge, attention to detail, and personality make him a very popular tour escort. Mike has contributed in a big way to this tour with his knowledge of Britain and historical sites, as well as his expert knowledge of all that is part of Coronation Street !

As a Certified Travel Manager, I have been developing and marketing group tours for the past twenty some years for Island Travel, The Travel Store, Admiral Travel, Vision 2000 Travel Group, Atlantic American Express Travel and then Maritime Travel. In 2007, our own “Coronation Travel” was born, with our main focus being our “From Coronation Street to Strawberry Fields” tour. The first two tours provided our guests with one of the only private backstage tours of the Coronation Street sets and a meeting with one of the actors. Last year Granada Studios permitted us to be on the set during filming , and our group had a chance to have some great chats with a few different actors. This is something that they don’t normally permit. Hopefully this year we will also get to meet several of the actors. Unfortunately we don’t know until about two weeks before , what the filming schedule will be.** If they happen to be on location somewhere the day of our visit, we will have to settle for our backstage tour and a meeting with one of the actors... which is also a great experience !.

We receive hundreds of emails each year from people all over the world who ask if they can just be part of our group for the day in Manchester so they too can have access to the inside sets. Unfortunately, we can’t permit this and reserve this thrill for those special people who travel with us on one of our tours.

We encourage you to share this itinerary with your friends and relatives, so that we will have a good-sized group this year. Please send in your booking forms right away. Should you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact either Mike or myself. The tour information and brochure will also be posted on our website:
